Why don't the city council cut down the weeds? Do not understand us as suggesting that Mayor Steel and the Aldermen are expected to take off their coats, shoulder their scythes and sally forth to slay gymnasium weeds and dog fennel, not by any means. We only mean that they should hire men to do the work and we the people—would pay the bills thus resulting. The mayor we understand belongs to the "N. S. Society," he and Ferris Finch—now married—being charter members, and, of course, mowing is more than we can expect from him. But let us have the weeds cut down on the side streets.

SUBMISSION FIRST

And Then Legislation on the Convict Lease System.

THAT IS GOV. BUCHANAN'S DICTUM.

The Attorney General Did Not Decide That the State Was Powerless and the Mob the Master—Meeting of the Miners' Committee and the Executive—A Promise That the Disorder Will Cease If the Extra Session Is Called—Decidedly Alarming Reports from the Seat of the Troubles.

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., July 23.—The report went out from Nashville Tuesday night that Attorney General Pickel had decided that the governor could not use the state troops to restore order at Briceville unless requested by the sheriff of Anderson county and that therefore the miners were masters of the situation, was evidently a wild guess at something the reporter knew nothing about. Yesterday the governor announced that he would use the troops if necessary and Attorney General Pickel bears the governor out in his action. His decision holds that the governor has a perfect right to order out the troops and preserve order in a county that is in a state of insurrection. The governor steadily adheres to his determination to uphold the law at any and all cost and says the troops will remain in Coal Creek when they get there till the miners have completely submitted.

The Miners Meet the Governor.

The committee of miners in the city and with two prominent citizens of both political parties, citizens of Knoxville, had a meeting at the Lander house and then waited on Governor Buchanan. A formal meeting was arranged for the afternoon. The meeting took place at the appointed time, and the miners asked for further time. They said that they thought they could induce their insurgent army to lay down their arms and allow the convicts to return to the mines if the governor would promise to call an extra session of the legislature and ask that the lease law be repealed. A committee of citizens of this city met the governor with the miners and joined in the appeal. The governor gave them until this afternoon to restore order and allow the law to take its course in Coal Creek valley. If it is not done by that time he will have the troops go to the scene and maintain the dignity of the state at the point of the bayonet.

Buchanan's Ultimatum.

After hearing the arguments of both operators and miners, and consulting many leading citizens of Knoxville, Governor Buchanan declared that he had decided to call an extra session of the legislature for the purpose of modifying, if not abolishing the convict lease system. He stated, however, that in the meantime the miners must allow the return of the convicts to Briceville and Coal Creek. Should they agree to this, the militia would be withdrawn, but refusal would necessitate an order that the troops carry the convicts back at any cost.

The Situation Still Critical.

The troops are anxious to move and settle the question as to who is the biggest, the state of Tennessee or the miners of Anderson county. They are thoroughly disgusted with the attitude of the people of this section and are not backward in expressing themselves. A mass meeting held last night and after its adjournment its participants ran through the streets yelling "Hurrah for the miners," and "Jeering Governor Buchanan." The feeling is becoming intense, and if the governor is inclined to peaceful measures such will change his resolution. The miners, from reports received, are not sleeping. There has been a big demand for rifles here in this city, and today may bring forth a terrible conflict.

ALARMING REPORTS ABROAD.

The Mob Said to Have Prepared to Dynamite the Militia.

On Coal Creek the miners have, it is reported, drilled holes in the rock of the bluff under which the troops will have to pass, and have loaded them with dynamite, which they intend to explode and wipe the whole militia off the face of the earth, if they ever get that far. This is given for what it is worth. A good many people profess to believe that it is so, and a captain of one of the militia companies says upon his word of honor that he saw the holes, and that one of the miners, who is his friend, told him that the miners intended throwing the whole bluff under the militia. The thirteen companies here, the same number that were in the Birmingham riot, are pretty badly excited. They, however, all swear that they go with the intention of fighting, and, if necessary, will remain forever at Coal Creek.

Charges Against the Soldiers.

Although denied by a majority of the soldiers who were forced to retreat from Briceville Monday, the charges that the troops invited the attack of the miners is doubtless true, and serious discussions in the ranks of the Militia, resulting in the resignation of one of the results. Lieutenants Keener and McCormick have informally tendered their resignations and make charges against Lieutenant Lauter and three privates of unsoldierly conduct. Lieutenant Lauter in a published card denounces as false the charges against the privates and against himself as lies made from whole cloth.

In Sympathy with the Rioters.

The charges in brief are as follows: "The first [members of the Zouaves] three called on one of the miners at Briceville Sunday, and after partaking freely of liquor stated that their comrades would refuse to fire if the militia would do so, and throw down their arms. They said they were in sympathy with the miners and would not fight them. Lieutenant Lauter did worse than they, however. He constantly talked to the men of his company about the matter, arguing that the miners were right and that he, for one, would not fight."

Four Thousand Well Armed Men.

It is said that the miners who are under arms at the mines are not as pacific as their committee here. A dispatch from Briceville says 4,000 well armed miners at Briceville and Coal Creek are waiting for the militia. A bloody battle will certainly occur if the troops go there. Advice from various points in Tennessee, Virginia and Kentucky indicate that the rioters can on short notice raise a force of 10,000 efficient men. Monday night the rioters formed on Walden's ridge and prepared to roll down huge boulders on the soldiers should they approach. The telegraph wires are still intact, but it is hard to get word from Coal Creek.

RELIEF WORKS IN IRELAND.

Balfour Makes a Statement—Comments of Irish Members.

LONDON, July 23.—In the house of commons yesterday the committee of supply favorably reported a bill which calls for the appropriation of £60,000 wherewith to pay the salaries and expenses connected with the government relief measures in Ireland. Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, in connection with the report of the committee and in support of its recommendations, made a detailed statement of the relief works which had been inaugurated and were in course of construction, or which had already been completed. It was, Balfour said, the intention of the government that these works should prove a permanent means for the promotion of the welfare of the inhabitants of Ireland. When it was considered how great were the difficulties which attended the vast system of relief works which extended from the extreme north to the extreme south of Ireland, it must be acknowledged that the government had not been wanting in appreciation of its duty. [Cheers.]

Tim Healy Finds Some Fault.

Tim Healy acknowledged that the government had performed a very useful work. He, however, vigorously charged that in the carrying out of the government's system of relief the county of Donegal had been neglected. Alfred Webb, Nationalist member, said that he gave full credit to Balfour for the work which he had performed. Webb said that he had from his own observation realized how effectively the pressing necessities of the people had been relieved, and he congratulated the chief secretary for Ireland upon the success of his efforts. Nevertheless he (Webb) still felt bitter humiliation as an Irishman that these constant requests for relief to his suffering countrymen were necessary. He regarded the fact that they were so necessary as showing how utterly wrong was the present system of government in Ireland.

MEXICAN METHOD OF PAYING DEBTS.

It Will Result in an Execution—A Murderer Betrayed by His Little Girl.

CITY OF MEXICO, July 23.—Leonardo Gomez and Epafano and Carmen Leyva borrowed money of Jose D. Jesus Rivas in the village of San Rafael and they would not pay on time, and resenting his importunity, planned to kill him. Gomez persuaded Rivas to assist him in cleaning out his well. The well was sixty feet deep. When Rivas reached the bottom Gomez rolled rocks and adobe upon him until the unfortunate creditor was buried alive. The secret was kept eight days. It was betrayed by Gomez's little girl. She went to a neighbor's for water and was asked why she did not take it from her father's well, and replied, "Because my papa has been buried in the well." Gomez was arrested and the well drained. He now awaits trial with his accomplices.

Trotting and Running Races.

The 2:17 trot was won by Mambrino Maid, best time of winner and race 2:15 1/4. Guy was driven to beat his record, but couldn't do better than 2:13 1/4. Nelson could not break his record either, his time being 2:11 1/4.

Chicago, July 23.—Winners at Garfield park yesterday: John Adams, 3/4 mile, 1:02 1/2; Camilla, 1 mile 1:49 1/4; Ed Bell, 9 furlongs, 1:55; Lorezo, 1 mile, 1:42 1/4; Roy S., 3/4 mile, 0:55 1/4; Borealis, 3/4 mile, 1:00 1/4.

At Hawthorne: G. W. Cook, 6 1/2 furlongs, 1:29 1/4; Allan Rame, 3/4 mile, 1:03 1/4; Strathmaid, 3/4 mile, 1:03 1/4; Maggie Lebus, 3/4 mile, 1:03 1/4; Elphin, steeple chase, short course, 3:35 1/4.

Alliance Men to Speak for Campbell.

PITTSBURGH, July 23.—Governor Campbell, of Ohio, arrived in Pittsburgh yesterday. The governor was met at the station by a large number of prominent Democrats and escorted to the Seventh Avenue hotel for breakfast. The governor was then given two receptions—one at the Standard club and the other at Silver Lake grove. He was confident of winning his gubernatorial fight and said that Cleveland would be asked to make a speech. Governor Hill, Jerry Simpson and Senator Peffer would also speak for the Democracy.

Meeting of Nashville Workmen.

NASHVILLE, July 23.—At a largely attended mass meeting of laboring men of the city of Nashville last night resolutions were adopted denouncing the convict lease system as unjust, pernicious, and unwise, declaring that the east Tennessee coal miners are being oppressed and intimidated by said system, extending the sympathy of the meeting to "our struggling brothers" demanding the repeal of the convict lease laws, and declaring that the Nashville workmen will aid the strikers financially.

Will Test the "Jim Crow" Car Law.

ST. PAUL, July 23.—The Tennessee law requiring separate railroad coaches for colored people and white people is to be tested by Samuel Hardy, of this city. Hardy has just returned from attending the Afro-American league convention in Tennessee. He was traveling on a Monon train and on passing the Tennessee line was compelled by the conductor to enter the colored coach. His case is conducted by F. L. McGhee, a colored attorney, who is acknowledged a capable lawyer.

Swell Wedding in London.

LONDON, July 23.—The marriage of Miss Ethel Forbes-Leith, of New York, to Captain Charles Roden Burn, of the First Royal dragoons and aide-de-camp to the Duke of Connaught, was solemnized at the Church of the Holy Trinity, Chelsea, yesterday. The church was filled with American and English fashionables, among the most distinguished personages present being the Princess Louise of Lorne, Duke and Duchess of Connaught, and United States Minister Lincoln.

Revolted Against the Government.

BUENOS AYRES, July 23.—News has reached here that a number of troops stationed at Corrientes, capital of the province of the same name, revolted against the government. After severe fighting, in which four men were killed, the outbreak was suppressed and the leaders of revolt arrested.

New Bridge Across the Mississippi.

KEOKUK, Ia., July 23.—At a mass meeting held here Tuesday it was decided that the city will build a high bridge across the Mississippi river, connecting Keokuk with the Illinois shore, exclusive of the railway bridge. Congress has already granted a charter.

SAT ON THE FIGHT.

Minnesota Law Gains a Victory at St. Paul.

THE SLUGGING MATCH PROHIBITED.

Gov. Merriam Calls Out the Troops, the Sheriff Commands the Peace and the Sports Are at the Dumps; Also the Athletic Club Men—President Cowles Complains Bitterly That the Authorities Were So Long Acting—A Costly Business for the Club—New Arrangements Made.

ST. PAUL, July 23.—So far as Minnesota is concerned the law and order people won a big victory yesterday, for at the last moment almost the officials decided to act, and the Hall-Fitzsimmons fight was declared off. It is not off, however, unless the Wisconsin authorities put their veto upon it also, as at midnight yesterday word went out to holders of all ticket to remain in town until today arrangements having been perfect ed for the fight to take place across the line in Wisconsin. Where it is to occur had not transpired at a late hour, and may not until it is time for those interested to take the cars or other conveyances for the battle field.

A Hurrying to and Fro.

Beardless young fellows in fatigue uniforms hurried in twos and threes through the streets of the capital as the sun was going down last evening. Gangs of men at the street corners, and blocking up the entrances to the hotels, glanced with forbidding brows at the youngsters as they passed by, and filled the air with imprecations loud and deep, and out in the northern suburbs the setting sun cast its shadow over a big circular structure, which stood solitary and desolate, save for the old watchman who sat smoking at the entrance. The young men were members of the local companies of the national guard, who had been ordered to prevent a fight that had already been abandoned. The men at the corners were disappointed sports, and the deserted structure was the amphitheatre in which the fight was to have taken place.

Sports Disappointed and Disgusted.

A more disappointed, disgusted lot of sports than St. Paul contained last night has probably never been gathered together anywhere or under any circumstances. They had come from far and near, from Houston and from San Francisco, from New Orleans and from the British Columbia coast, and from the sister city across the river. The action of the authorities yesterday morning came upon the aggregation of sports like a thunderclap. The proclamation issued Tuesday by Governor Merriam, and the arraignment of Fitzsimmons and his trainers in the police court, had been regarded by the friends of Fitzsimmons and Hall as very much in the nature of a bluff, and there seemed to be a very general understanding that, having thus offered a sop to the protesting law reform element, the powers that be would allow the anticipated fight, or any other chronic kidney affection during their conduct of the case.

Too Common To Be Exciting.

HENDERSON, Tex., July 23.—A negro named William Johnson, aged 17 years, was taken out of the county jail Tuesday morning by an armed mob, who overpowered the jailer, getting possession of his keys and securing the negro. They quietly took him to a tree near the public square and hanged him. No excitement prevailed. Another negro was jailed just a few hours previous to the lynching. Had his presence been known he would have shared the fate of Johnson.

Ran Over a Cow with Fatal Result.

LOCK HAVEN, Pa., July 23.—The engine of the fast passenger train on the Bald Eagle Valley railroad ran over a cow sixteen miles west of this city yesterday morning. The engine was thrown from the track and Engineer Frank Wood, of Tyrone, killed and Fireman William Spiker injured. C. E. Wait, of this city, who was riding on the engine, was seriously injured.

Gould Traveling in Search of Health.

CHICAGO, July 23.—Jay Gould and party arrived here yesterday and departed for the Rocky mountains at 7 p. m. Mr. Gould is very much under the weather and looks thin, pale and haggard. He is not in nearly as good health as when he was west in March and seemed to feel the effects of the heat very much. Mr. Gould's visit west is solely in search of health.

Dragged to Death by a Mule.

MEXICO, Mo., July 23.—Thomas Vaughan, a prominent farmer living sixteen miles north of here, was dragged to death by a young mule yesterday. A long rope was attached to the animal's neck to facilitate its capture. The rope got around Vaughan's legs, and the mule bounded away, dragging the farmer around the field until he was dead.

Liability of British Employers.

LONDON, July 23.—The house of lords, sitting as a court of appeal, has decided that employers are liable for injuries to workmen laboring in dangerous places unless they have especially warned them of the perils to which they are exposed. The house thus reverses previous decisions on this important point.

Burned by a Gasoline Explosion.

CHICAGO, July 23.—A gasoline stove exploded yesterday at the residence of Mrs. Gattney, at the corner of West Chicago avenue and May street. Mrs. Gattney and her baby and Mrs. Stolte and her 3 1/2 year-old child were severely burned about the head and breast. They were taken to the county hospital.

Customs Continue to Fall Off.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—A statement prepared at the treasury department shows that the receipts from customs at the port of New York during the first twenty days of the present month were $6,735,487, or $3,285,551 less than the receipts at the same port during the corresponding period of last year.

WOODS FULL OF MAD FOXES.

Remarkable Epidemic Among the Little Brutes in South Carolina.

CHARLESTON, July 23.—Last fall the country around Pineopolis, a suburb of this city, was demoralized by reports of ravages of mad foxes. News was received yesterday to the effect that the disease has spread through the country, and it has become dangerous to travel through the woods. A planter from Ten Mile hill reports that the woods in that region are full of mad foxes, and the negro population, which is very dense around the phosphate mines, is in a state of panic. Many persons have been attacked by rabid foxes within the past few days, and thus far thirteen persons have been severely bitten.

Had to Fight for His Life.

Yesterday William Fraser, a negro, had a desperate encounter with one. The fox rushed at him and a lively fight ensued, the man being unarmed. His clothes were torn into shreds, but he succeeded in beating the beast off without suffering any injury. Two of these mad foxes have been killed thus far. The entire population is up in arms, and an effort will be made to clean the animals out. None of the persons bitten by the foxes has as yet shown symptoms of hydrophobia. The theory is advanced that the disease is caused by the drought.

The Record at Base Ball.

Jumped the Tracks.

CARLEISLE, Pa., July 23.—A passenger train on the Philadelphia, Harrisburg and Pitsburg railroad, bound from Harrisburg to Gettysburg, jumped the track near here while running at full speed. Express Messenger Watson was probably fatally injured, while David Levan, of Reading, solicitor of the Philadelphia Times, and Conductor Bumbough were severely cut and bruised. The track was torn up for a great distance, totally suspending traffic. The spreading of the rails caused the accident.

The Latest Lie on Blaine.

BAR HARBOR, July 23.—In order to ascertain how true is the report that Mr. Blaine has Bright's disease, a reporter visited Dr. Foster, Mr. Blaine's physician. He went with the reporter to the cottage of Dr. Smith who treated Mr. Blaine until the middle of June. The two physicians concurred in the opinion—as they declared without any mental reservation—that their patient has had no symptoms of Bright's disease or any other chronic kidney affection during their conduct of the case.

Height of Cruelty

Nervous women seldom receive the sympathy they deserve. While often the pictures of health, they are constantly ailing. To withhold sympathy from these unfortunates is the height of cruelty. They have a weak heart, causing shortness of breath, fluttering, pain in side, weak and hungry spells, and finally swelling of ankles, oppression, no king, smothering and dropsy. Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure is just the thing they want. For their nervousness, headache, weakness, etc., his Restorative Nervine is unequalled. Fine Treatise on Heart and Nervous Diseases and marvelous testimonials free. Sold and guaranteed by Tillsen & Hayden.

He Yellon Kemp's Balsam

I yell "Take Kemp's Balsam the best cough cure." I always do when I hear a man cough, and I can't help it. It saved me and it will cure you. I was threatened with pneumonia last winter and it broke it up. It helps the children out when their throats are sore, cures their coughs and tastes so good. The first dose helps you. So writes A. R. Arnold, engineer on the West Shore Ry., at Canajoharie, New York.

Hold It to the Light

The man who tells you confidentially just what will cure your cold is prescribing Kemp's Balsam this year. In the preparation of this remarkable medicine for coughs and colds no expense is spared to combine only the best and purest ingredients. Hold a bottle of Kemp's Balsam to the light and look through it; notice the bright, clear look; then compare with other remedies. Large bottle at all druggists 50c and $1. Sample bottle free.

The annoyance of breaking lamp chimneys need not be borne.

Get tough glass chimneys. Macbeth's "pearl top" and "pearl glass" are tough against heat; they do not break, except from accident. They are also clear, transparent, not misty or milky; they fit and stand upright; shape and proportions are right to direct the draft upon the flame. They cost a little more than rough and wrong chimneys of common glass that break continually. Pittsburgh. GEO. A. MACBETH & CO.

A Mystery Explained.

The papers contain frequent notices of rich, pretty and educated girls eloping with negroes, tramps and boozemen. The well-known specialist, Dr. Franklin Miles, says all such girls are more or less hysterical, nervous, very impulsive, unbalanced; usually subject to headache, neuralgia, sleeplessness, inclination to crying or laughing. These show a weak nervous system for which there is no remedy equal to Restorative Nervine. Damages Reported to the Extent of Millions of Dollars—Cherokee Gets An-

Wrecked and the Railways Washed
Out—Thirty-Six Square Miles of Territory
Swept Over in Dakota—Damage
Elsewhere.
DES MOINES, Ia., July 23.—Reports received from various points in central Iowa show that great damage was done to the crop by a severe wind and rain storm early yesterday morning. Very few farmers had harvested a portion of their oats, but the loss can be said to be general, almost total, and to aggregate millions of dollars.
If the storm was as severe all over central Iowa as it was in this vicinity it will be a severe disaster to the farmers and a serious loss to the general business of the state. The storm was very short in duration, exceeding not a half an hour, but the wind blew a gale and rain poured down in sheets.

Further Havoc at Cherokee.
CHEROKEE, Ia., July 23.—Cherokee county was visited yesterday morning by a most disastrous rain and wind storm,
only equalled by the great flood of June 21. Tuesday evening a terrific rainstorm set in, accompanied by hail and high wind,
which continued up to 4 o'clock yesterday morning. Railroad creek in this city attained a height of only two feet lower than last month, when it wrought such terrible havoc. Much alarm was felt by the remaining residents on the flat, and many of them deserted their homes. Two residences, which were moved from their foundations by the former flood, were yesterday morning carried into the Sioux river and dashed to pieces on the Second street bridge.

A Bridge Swept Away.
Many timbers and ruins saved from the former storm were swept into the river and lodged against the bridge, which went out at an early hour yesterday morning.
Two other bridges in the city were also carried away. There are washouts on the Illinois Central railroad between this point and Sioux City and also on the Cherokee division of the Illinois Central north and south of here. Corn and small grain have suffered great damage by having been flattened by the heavy rain and winds.

Swept Over Thirty-Six Miles.
ELLENDALE, N. D., July 23.—Meager reports from Tuesday night's hailstorm in this and adjoining counties show that the damage in Dickey county is not so serious as feared. A strip three miles wide and twelve miles long was swept by the hail,
but in a part of the county not extensively flooded. The damage to crops will not exceed 1,000 acres in this county. In Mc-Pherson county around Westport the hail made a clean sweep and several thousand acres are reported to be beaten into the ground. Crop prospects were never finer in this part of North Dakota, and Dickey county promises to be the banner wheat county of the James River valley this year. Harvest will begin in two weeks.
Help is scarce and there is much apprehension on that account.

Along the Illinois Central.
WATERLOO, Ia., July 23.—A heavy storm extended along the Illinois Central's lines
from this city west to the Missouri river at an early hour yesterday morning. At Cedar Falls a barn belonging to C. T.
Round, and containing 140 tons of hay,
was destroyed. Oats all over this section were badly lodged by the storm.

Hail Cuts the Corn Crop to Pieces.
CONCORDIA, Kan., July 23.—A disastrous hail storm a mile wide passed through the northern part of this county
yesterday afternoon, cutting the corn crop all to pieces. The storm was severe between Wayne and Hollis. It spent its force before reaching Norway.

Hail Causes $100,000 Damages.
ST. PETER, Minn., July 23.—The hail storm which passed over the western part of the county on Sunday laid low all the crops and caused a loss to grain estimated at $100,000. The losses were uninsured.
A YOUNG GIRL MURDERED.
Her Throat Cut From Ear to Ear by Robbers.
HAZELTON, Pa., July 23.—Lattimer, a small mining town four miles from here,
was yesterday the scene of a most brutal and cowardly murder. Mrs. Garvey went huckleberrying at an early hour in the morning and left her daughter, Mary,
aged 13, at home to attend to the baby.
Upon her return shortly after noon
time she found the doors bolted
and upon forcing them, found the dead body of her daughter lying on the floor in a pool of blood, with her throat cut from ear to ear. At her side lay a big butcher knife. At first it was thought that an assault had been attempted, and that the murderer killed the girl to cover the crime.

Robbed of All Their Savings.
But this is not sustained upon further examination. It is supposed that a man entered the house to rob the family of their savings, which were very large. The box containing the savings of years is gone, and it is supposed the robber was caught in the act by the girl, whom he murdered to conceal his identity. There is no clew to the robber.

Carnegie's Company Wins a Strike.
DUQUESNE, Pa., July 23.—The steelworkers' strike at the Carnegie Allegheny Bessemer Steel works for recognition of the Amalgamated association ended Tuesday in a victory for the firm.
The men will return to work at the company's terms.

May Get the Same Dose.
BALTIMORE, July 23.—Nicholas Hoffman, whose evidence sent William Blaney to the scaffold for the murder of his aunt and grandmother, is now under arrest himself charged with the murder of Peter Nagel. He pushed Nagel off a wharf Tuesday morning, and the man was drowned.

Took Rat Poison and Will Die.
SHELBYVILLE, Ind., July 23.—John L.
Rhodes, a miller in good circumstances,
living seven miles north of this place, attempted suicide Wednesday by taking rat poison. Probably he will die.

THE SECRET OF HER POWER.
She doth the sunshine bring,
The radiance of her face,
Her bonnie pleasuring
And sprightly, winsome grace,
And tender smile,
And lightness of jest,
And gladness of song,
Sad hearts beguile
In life's mad thrang
Who long for rest.
"Thank God such beings live!"
Said one who heard her song.
"They hope and courage give,
When all the world seems wrong."
Wouldn't know her art
Men wondrous call
And like her live!
A broken heart,
A wish to give
But joy—that's all.

Well Dressed Literary Women.
If it be a fact, as an English newspaper recently stated, that the literary women of England dress badly, the charge does not hold true of our American female writers. There was a time when a literary woman was associated with oddness of dress, large shoes and short hair. That has, however, gone out of fashion. Only recently I was at a public gathering where some twenty literary women had congregated. As I looked over the body from an elevation I was convinced that the most fastidious
could wish for no better display of taste
in dress.
Simple gowns were the rule, but their fit in several instances was such as to draw forth individual comment from members of my party, who had always thought that literary women dressed badly. Some of the best dressers today in New York are literary women, and a fashionable woman's tailor not long ago
told me that his best and most tasteful customer was a popular authoress. If literary women in England dress badly,
as has been stated, their American sisters differ from them materially.—New York Cor. Chicago Herald.

A Metropolitan Innovation.
The museum party has become quite popular this summer, partly because it is new and partly because, if not taken too enthusiastically, and so with too much fatigue, it is very enjoyable.
Invitations are sent out, say by Mrs.
A—, requesting her guests to meet her in the large hall of the Metropolitan Museum of Art in Central park. A ticket of admission is inclosed with the invitation. When all have assembled and the greetings are over, a tour of the various departments is made, while carriages wait to take the party afterward to the house of the hostess for tea, or, if the excursion is made in the morning,
for a flower luncheon.

At one of these museum luncheons a Grecian temple made of white roses stood in the middle of the table on a platform of red roses; the roses were molded in the shapes of miniature statues, and the little cakes that went with them were baked in various archeological forms.—New York Letter.

A Rainbow Bazaar.
Rainbow bazaars are not a novelty on this side of the water, but one held recently in Yarmouth, England, was specially artistic, and may afford some hints for summer charitable efforts. The flower booth was hung in gray and the women serving there wore gray gowns—
a neutral tint against which the many colored flowers stood finely out. For the art booth a rich yellow was selected for drapery, and the dresses of those in attendance were gorgeous with gold trimmings.
Heliotrope showed at the pottery stall,
olive green was the setting of the refreshment booths, and at the basket stall
warm terra cotta brightened the monotonous effect of the wares. A parcel office in the center of the hall was presided over by young women dressed as near like brown paper as possible, with string passmenories by way of ornament.—New York Times.

Girls and Reciprocity.
The aim of all true friends of Rochester is to make it a manly college. We have quite enough little girls and women
here already; hence we do not want any more. Again, this is not a matrimonial agency. We have several married men within our walls, and could you but hear them as they pour their woes into our sympathetic ear, you would surely have pity on us and withdraw your marshaled forces.
Finally, sisters, we believe in reciprocity. Admit us to Vassar and Wellesley, let us prepare for college in Livingston Park seminary and Miss Doolittle's, and we, with open arms, will say come
and welcome.—Rochester Campus.

White Hair Turning Black.
A most singular freak of nature has manifested itself here. Mrs. Mary Francis, when she was young and also while she was in the prime of life, had very black eyes and a beautiful head of very black hair. She is about seventy years old now, is in good health and a rich widow. When she was about fifty her hair began to turn as white as snow, and so remained until about a year ago, when it began to turn black again, and has now, without the use of any artificial means and purely as a freak of nature,
almost wholly returned to its original dark color, and is as long and silky as when she was a young woman.—Saratoga
Cor. Albany Journal.

Salt Water Good for Cleaning.
Rattan and willow chairs should be cleaned, like straw matting, with salt and water. First thoroughly remove the dust; then wring a clean cloth out of salt
and water, rubbing chair or matting dry with the other hand as you go on, or at any rate, as quickly as you can, so that it may retain none of the moisture.—
New York Journal.

She Has Buried 5,338 Persons.
At the tenth annual convention of the Funeral Directors' association, of Pennsylvania, Mr. Miller, of Reading, introduced Mrs. Ellen Moore, of Williamsport. She had been in business over forty years, and in that time had buried 5,338 bodies. She was elected an honorary member of the association.—Cor.
Philadelphia Times.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies,
and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable.
Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful.
It acts directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address:

A PAIN IN THE BACK
A pain in the back is not always the sign of kidney trouble. Quite often it is only an indication of cold, although if neglected it is liable to lead to grave trouble. By treating it at once you will save yourself a vast amount of suffering and annoyance. In all cases of this sort take Reid's German Cough and Kidney Cure. It is composed of simple, yet powerful, ingredients, but none of them are harmful even to the weakest constitution, nor is it unpleasant to take, but it acts at once and will relieve the worst pain and all tendency to rheumatism which always follows colds that are allowed to settle in the back if they are neglected. All dealers keep it.

—The W. C. T. U. of Rockford, have started a new branch in the temperance line. They send out a pure white milk cart and sell cold milk by the glass to laboring men, which is exceedingly nourishing and refreshing.

—In the shooting contest at Amboy yesterday Charles Wooster won the diamond badge and Cairncross the Dixie cup. Wooster has won the badge four times but will have to win it three times in succession to hold it as his own.

—George Simms, who, on a wager, undertook to walk from Galveston, Texas to Chicago, "without a cent in his pockets," in sixty days, finished the trip Thursday, four or five hours ahead of time. He was fed and lodged by kind-hearted people along the route.

—The annual county convention of the I. O. G. T. will be held in the Good Templars' Hall to-morrow afternoon. An interesting program has been prepared. The district superintendent, Mrs. Stokes, of Freeport, will be here. After the convention the Templars will have a picnic at Fuller's cave.

—Misses May Zoph, Carrie Poland Grace Crane, Bertha E. Armour, Gussie Jones and Ada E. Lewis, six pretty young ladies of Amboy, arrived by carriage in our city at noon, took dinner at the Washington House and this afternoon joined friends, who are picnicing at Fuller's cave.

—After an examination of the malignant tumor on Antone Reuland's neck the Chicago doctors came to the conclusion that a surgical operation would not only be useless but attended with immediate danger to life. Doctor Law, we understand, believes that Mr. Reuland can live but a few weeks for the terrible tumor is gradually but surely destroying his life. The many friends of Mr. Reuland will receive this news with sadness.

—An old farmer came into the office of the Belle Plain Union last week, and said to the editor: "Browne, can you make pictures? I would like to see in the Union the picture of a working man carrying the ten quart tin pail he can now buy for a quarter and the twenty pounds of granulated sugar a dollar buys to put into it, contrast with the little tin bucket he used to pay more for, and the eleven pounds of sugar, all his dollar would buy. I tell you, Browne the grangers begin to see the good effects of the McKinley bill in hundreds of ways, and 1892 will show what farmer think of men who work for their interests."

—At Prophetstown Editor Parker, of the Rock Falls News, anticipates a good time where the District reunion of Grand Army Posts of Whiteside and Lee counties is to be held next September. The Captain says: "We all remember the good time we had at Franking Grove, a city of about the same size, and we look forward to the meeting at Prophetstown for repetition of that event. So look out for a good time at Prophetstown."

—The Sterling Y. M. C. A. field day, which was to be held next Tuesday will come off to-morrow instead. The following Dixon boys intend going down: H. B. Scoville, Ed. Senef, Will Trein and P. C. Cowles. The program for the races will be as follows: One hundred yard dash; quarter-mile bicycle race; pole vaulting; quarter-mile foot race; half-mile bicycle race; fifty-yard backward race; throwing 12-pound hammer; mile bicycle race; running high jumping; putting 12-pound shot; one mile foot race; game of base ball, Y. M. C. A. vs. picked nine. The prizes awarded are donated by Sterling merchants.

One of the two articles in the August number of the North American Review to which special attention is called by the typographical arrangement of the table of contents is entitled "The War—Some Unpublished History." The author is the Hon. Charles A. Dana, the brilliant editor of the New York Sun, who was Assistant Secretary of War in 1863-4. It is truly a romance of the war which he tells in a few pages, and one of thrilling interest, illustrating for the thousandth time the force of the adage that truth is stranger than fiction. Of the hero of his tale, a Union spy, Mr. Dana says: "He was one of the cleverest creatures I ever saw. His style of patriotic lying was sublime; it amounted to genius."

—Though the Mormons of Salt Lake and Utah denied that they intended an exodus to Mexico, it appears now that they have established hundreds of families and thousands of people in the states of Sonora and Chihuahua, in fertile valleys where concessions have been made to them by the Mexican Government, and that they expect to build up anew in this region the practices for which they were condemned at Salt Lake. They are a thrifty and industrious people, but they cling to polygamy with the tenacity of bigotry, and their exodus as a people to Mexico would not be any serious loss to the United States. On the contrary, it would be a blessing in removing all fear of the revival here of the secret practice of their polygamous ideas.

—The ditching operations over in Inlet County have made a wonderful change for the better in thousands of acres of land in the central portion of Lee County. Recently B. J. Grant drove a wagon loaded with sixty bushels of oats through the swamp which but a year or so since was mostly only possible with boots, and never before could even an empty wagon and team be driven there except when the land and water was frozen. Mr. Grant says he was almost secreted from sight for miles about with tall grass. We did not make inquiry of our neighbor as to why he was out there with a load of oats; nor did we ask him where or when he got them; nor whether or not it was moonlight; nor why he was working his way across lots in the tall grass, via Skunk Island, our old duck hunting ground, with a load of oats. We presume he will explain.

—The Governor of Louisiana was hard hearted enough to spoil the spot of a number of individuals who had assembled on Friday at Lake Charles. The executive of that state appears to be entirely lacking in that peculiar sense of humor which characterizes people there-away and leads them on to make a picnic of an execution. An excursion had been arranged to bring a large party of persons from various Texas towns, the attraction being the hanging of two criminals. In addition to the spectacle to be afforded to the merry-makers a band was to furnish them with delightful music, and refreshments had been prepared. The pleasant and refined entertainment which had been provided for the ladies and gentlemen from Texas was, however, spoiled by the inconsiderate action of the Governor, who granted the murders a respite of a few days.

—A class will soon be formed for study of the Delsarte Philosophy under the instruction of a competent teacher. Mr. Clark has a number of advanced pupils in elocution who are well prepared to begin the study. This preparation is not necessarily essential, but is a great help especially when one wishes to make a public use of it. Many suppose the system to be a superficial child's play sort of accomplishment. Most of the prejudice comes through ignorance of the underlying principles and having only seen false representatives, who catering to an indiscriminating public, palm off Greek postures, the meaningless floating of the arms by stage struck maidens, the panther-like strides of would-be actresses, etc., calling this the Delsarte Philosophy of expression. No wonder practical men and women question its utility. Prof. Worman writing upon this subject says: "The teachings are grand and practical withal, and can be incorporated into every day life. By its power you can gain complete mastery of self, reveal the meaning and value of every action, attitude and tone. It teaches not only how to move but how to rest." The latter a great boon to a very large class of Americans.

—Life.
Sadie, (after the visitors had gone)—
"Say, mamma, keep them on a little while."
"Keep what on, dear?"
"Your company manners."

Lo, The Poor Indian.
Illini Tribe, No. 57, Improved Order of Red Men held an important meeting last night. Grant Funk and Harry Wheeler had well developed scalps and are now Red Men. The Hunter's degree was conferred upon William Couch and Frank Lawton, and the Warrior's degree given to Ed Winders and Charles Frisby. The meeting was greatly enjoyed last night. Illini Tribe is in a flourishing condition.

Major Watson's Narrow Escape.
Workmen are now engaged tearing down the old Methodist parsonage preparatory to building the new church and Major Watson has charge of the work. When the brick work of the gable end of the parsonage fell in on the Major to-day and "barked" his back and knocked the skin from his legs and made a racket that would have frightened the life out of a man of less nerve, his remarks really were not more emphatic than those which have echoed through the halls of the old parsonage during the several decades of its existence; and nothing to be compared with the historical utterances of "our army in Flanders."

What a strange fatality it would have been had the Major, after going through all the dangers and hardships of the late war, fallen finally under the debris of a Methodist parsonage while pursuing what is considered a safe occupation. However, we are all glad that Major Watson escaped fortunately without serious injury.

Street Railway Again at Sterling.
Our neighboring city of Sterling is still working for street railway. At the last meeting of their city council the railway scheme to apply for a franchise was blocked by a law passed requiring bids to be advertised ten days before granting the franchise. But nevertheless a company has been organized. Articles of incorporation were granted at Springfield to the Jameson Street Railway Company, of Sterling, with a capital stock of $50,000. After so long a time trying Sterling ought to get the tramway. Indeed two or three years since Sterling commenced building a street railway, and went so far with the work as to erect poles for the electric wire, had the ties, and, we believe, rails on the ground ready for being placed.

From the Sterling Gazette.
Miss Geiger, of Dixon, came down on yesterday afternoon's train for a visit with Mrs. Walzer, on Nineteenth avenue. A. C. Griffith, who has for many months been employed by Parker & Weifenbaugh, resigned his position yesterday and today left for Dixon where he thinks of locating.

Walter Campbell got $75 right in his fist day before yesterday for a pearl which he found in the Elkhorn. Henry Van Sanford has one that weighs one and one-half grains, for which he has been offered thirty-five dollars, but he wants more.

Ed Hughes, the Clinton horseman, has been granted the rights of the Driving Park and now has a string of five fine trotters in daily exercise thereon.

College Items.

The Teachers Institute will meet in Chapel Hall Saturday morning at nine o'clock. The program under preparation is an interesting one.

Prof. Dille is in Chicago on business. A very neat and yet elaborate Souvenir program of the Commencement exercises is being prepared in Chicago, containing a complete announcement of all the entertainments to be given during the second week in August.

The meteoric display Sunday evening overcome one couple so completely that they were compelled to rest on a horse-block in the west end until its effects wore off—which, we are told was quite a long time.

Miss Mabel Prutman, so well remembered by Dixon and college people as the lady elocutionist is expected to return in a few weeks to attend the commencement exercises and visit with friends. She has been teaching elocution in Hall, Iowa during the past year.

G. F. Gum one of this year's scientifics, has accepted a position as teacher in the "Mossholder district" school, south of this city.

J. R. Barry, who completes the scientific course this year will be a classic this winter.

Misses Marcia Smith, Lettie Lowell and Jennie Archibald will teach in Rock Falls school next year under Prof. Samuel as Principal. The N. I. N. S. supplies that city with a corps of able teachers.

The following frank statement from J. E. Hare, of Trenton, Texas, will be of interest to many of our citizens. "My little boy was very bad off for two months with diarrhoea. We used various medicines, also called in two Doctors, but nothing done him any good until we used Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, which gave immediate relief and soon cured him. I consider it the best medicine made and can conscientiously recommend it to all who need a diarrhoea or colic medicine." For sale by H. E. Donaldson, Druggist.
